In The Restaurant

One day, a girl went to a restaurant to have dinner. She found a table and sat down. She looked at the menu and felt very hungry.

The waiter came to her table and asked, "May I take your order?"

"May I have some spaghetti with meat sauce, please?" she replied.

The waiter said, "That will be thirty dollars." But the girl only had twenty dollars in her wallet. Suddenly, she found ten dollars on the table, so she gave it to the waiter.

What a lucky day!
